

First

Bens Canteen – Battersea

Ben's Canteen is an all day neighbourhood hangout serving brunch, dinner and drinks ,7 days a week. They're proud to serve one of the most indulgent brunches in London with great coffee and epic Bloody Marys. Executive head chef Chris Brumby has been there for a year

All Day Breakfast Sausage Roll w Blood Mary Shot

Second

The Opera Tavern

A beautiful & amazing two-storey bar and restaurant in the heart of theatre land. AA two rosettes , multiple award winning Represented today by Head Chef Jamie Thicket & Sous Chef Ben Mullock they have both been ther for 3 years since it opened it is heavilly & famously influenced by the taste of Spain

Iberico Pork Sausage Roll

Third

The Running Horse Mayfair

Now owned by James Chase of Chase Distillery and Dominic Jacobs, 'TRH' is one of Mayfair's real pubs, It has been around since 1738 has had a rather major wash and brush up and is now definitely up & running with Head Andrew Justice, who made it to the quarter finals of MasterChef the Professionals in 2010 running the kitchen

Wild Rabbit and Chestnut Mushroom sausage roll along side a carrot and thyme puree.